

GAIA&REY

(GUY-yah eh RAY)

First Chardonnay planted in Piemonte and first Italian white wine aged in barriques, Gaia&Rey was named by Angelo after his first daughter, Gaia, and grandmother Clotilde Rey.

Winery	GAJA, Barbaresco, Piedmont.
Denomination	Langhe D.O.P.
Varieties	Chardonnay.
Vineyards	Gaia &amp; Rey is produced from two separated vineyards in the Langhe district: one vineyard planted in 1979 in Treiso and the other in Serralunga d'Alba planted in 1989. This last vineyard provide more acidity and structure to Gaia &amp; Rey. Surface: approximately 5.5 hectares (14 acres).
Winemaking method	Fermented and aged in stainless steel tanks and barrels.
Characteristics	Nose with complex and fragrant notes. Great intensity and length in the mouth, elegant character with mineral notes and nice acidity. Excellent bottle ageing capacity.
First vintage produced	1983.